

INFANTRY ADVANCE AT THE PHILADELPHIA MILITARY TRAINING CAMP AT LANSDOWNE

HERE'S A "KEEP-COOL" JOB Regardless of the heat this dare-devil painter is as "cool as a cucumber."

HE'S LONG OUT OF THE TRENCHES, BUT HE CAN STILL FIGHT It's been a long time since George W. Gordon, of Post No. 21, G. A. R., has shouldered his musket, but he recalls how lack of a Red Cross increased the misery of the Civil War.

The Young Lady Across the Way

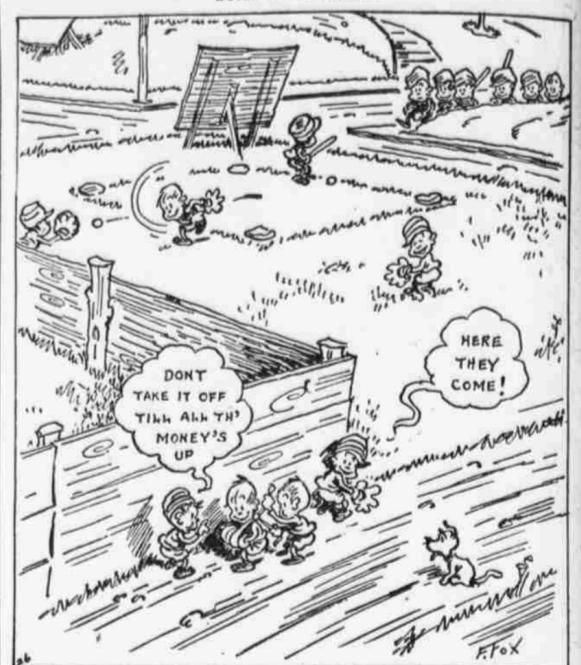

The young lady across the way says her father is suffering from a slight touch of rheumatism of the psychopathic nerve.

Curiosity

Rector (after exposition of Sunday school lesson to infant class)—Now, would any little boy or girl like to ask me a question?

A Terrible Infant—Have you got on trousers under that nightgown? —The Lamb.

Joyful Job

The lady bank clerk had completed her first week, and a friend asked her how she liked the work. "Oh, it's beautiful!" said the girl. "I'm at a branch where nearly all the people we know have accounts, and it's so nice to see how little money some of your friends have in the bank!" —Manchester Guardian.

Multiplicity

—London Opinion. Making the most of it.

How About Slippers?

"Why are children so much worse than they used to be?" "I attribute it to improved ideas in building." "How so?" "Shingles are scarce, and you can't spank a boy with a tin roof." —Awwgan.

Real Philanthropy

—The Tatler. Mrs. Noopop—Charlie, what do you think? Dad's just sent us a check for $50 for our new baby! Wasn't that good of him? Mr. Noopop—I should say so! I'll write at once and thank him for his contribution to the fresh hair fund.

AFTER A ROUGH CROSSING

—The Passing Show. Good soldier (but a poor sailor)—Lummy. Ah, I wish we'd thought to walk across, same as him!
